Annual Index of UCCLJ Articles

Volume 6, Summer 1973-Spring 1974

References are to pages

Annual Report to Congress on Truth in Lending for the Year 1973, Board of Governors, Federal Reserve System, 309

Defending a Truth in Lending Lawsuit, Carl D. Lobell, 236

Draft Uniform Law on International Bills of Exchange and International Promissory Notes, The United Nations Commission on International Trade Law, 37

Due Process and Prejudgment Remedies: The Attempt to Protect Legitimate Creditor Interests in the Days of Consumerism, David F. Maxwell and John P. McKelligott, 101

The Fair Credit Billing Act, William Proxmire, 5

How to Avoid Civil Liability Imposed by the Truth in Lending Act, Ralph C. Clontz, Jr., 364

The Impact of the UCC on Field Warehousing, James T. McGuire, 267

May a "Wrongdoer" Recover a Deficiency Judgment, or Is Section 9-507(1) a Debtor's Exclusive Remedy? Robert S. Minetz, 344

Proposed Article 9 Revision: A New Way to Read 9-313—Fixtures Complicated, David Lloyd, 146

Recent UCC Cases With Bank Plaintiffs and Defendants, Lester Denonn, 162

Recommendations of the National Commission on Consumer Finance—Incorporation Into the Uniform Consumer Credit Code (Part I), Milton W. Schober, 128

Recommendations of the National Commission on Consumer Finance—Incorporation Into the Uniform Consumer Credit Code (Part II), Milton W. Schober, 205

Some Default Problems Under Article 9, William B. Davenport, 332